I. ACCOMPLISHMENTS and EVALUATION

- Describe what was achieved during the time period of the grant.

This seven-day immersive program was an experiential opportunity to gain a “holistic understanding of the intercultural learning process.” The seminar focused on the research and pedagogy of facilitating intercultural learning during study abroad. The seminar in Madrid was attended by 20 US faculty from United States. The Lundeen award also funded a short “site visit” to Barcelona.

Since completion of the seminar, the host city of Barcelona has been chosen and the curriculum for the course has been developed using many of the experiential exercises from the seminar. In addition, learning from the seminar has been shared with my co-teacher Kelly McElroy, other OSU librarians, OSU study abroad faculty-leaders, and librarians at national conferences.

IV. SHARING YOUR PRODUCT/RESULTS

What are your plans for disseminating the results of your work? If it will be a web page or product, or published article or book, when will it be available to the public? Include citations/URLs if known.

Kelly McElroy and I have developed a short-term study abroad titled, “Information and Global Social Justice”. Attending the intercultural seminar in Madrid and pre-trip to Barcelona were instrumental in planning, designing, and creating the syllabus and curriculum for the course. After successfully instructing our first short-term study-abroad in the summer of 2016, we will give both local, national, and international presentations about how the course was developed and implemented with the hopes that other librarians will be inspired to teach similar study abroad courses for undergraduate students.
